Last Unit of Construction Hamlin Water Works Goes to Panhandle Const. Co.

Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. the City Council opened bids on the last unit of construction of Hamlin's New water works system.

The bids called for the continuation of the 10 inch pipe line from the north side of the Routh farm to Hamlin's new filtration plant, now under construction at the old pumping station.

There were but two bidders Tuesday, and the low company was the Panhandle Construction Co. of Lubbock, who are already on the ground with machinery laying the pipe line from the New Lake to a point on the north side of the Routh place.

Panhandle Construction Co. bid $14,725.27.

Clouse Bros. of Kerville turned in a bid of $17,325.00.

The Panhandle Co. will rush this last unit of the system right on into town, and will tie the line on to the new treating basin.

The pipe line will have a fall sufficient to gravitate water to the treating plant and from there it will be lifted by new pumps into the stand pipe.

Hundreds of people are visiting the New Lake each Sunday and are by this time realizing its magnitude, and the general plans of catching the immense amount of water that "Dry California Creek" receives. The company is starting the rip-rapping on the water side. They are using some extra fine stone from the Lueders rock works. The rock is laid from the bottom of the clay-pack dam, set at right angle to the face of the dam. This will make wave action strike the rock almost edge-wise. No piece of rock can possibly turn over, either way. The rip-rapping will be laid higher than the highest water level, so that high winds on a full lake can do no damage by wave action.

Hamlin Lakes Get Twenty-Four Hundred Fish From Hatchery

Thursday of last week, L. A. Proctor, Assistant Supt. of the State Fish Hatchery at Cisco, came to Hamlin with a load of baby fish.

Proctor turned free into our lakes 1200 Bass, 3 inches long and 1200 Crappie, same size. He said these fish should be "keepers" in two years.

Mr. Proctor said they would have all species in September and October including Channel Cat, Bream, Moss Back, Perch and Crappie.

Hamlin lakes west of town should be well protected and as time goes on, they should be this section's best fishing grounds. It is also likely that when the City water supply is from the new lake entirely there will be enough water in the old California River stream to keep the lakes up to fish requirements and also keep the City Park Lake full. That would be an ideal situation. Boating and fishing on three lakes right in the edge of town is not bad. Come on with your fish—put 'em in the City Park Lake too.

LEGAL IN JONES COUNTY

FISHING—Closed season changed from February, March and April on all fish to March and April on bass and crappie only. Lawful to use seines or nets at any time other than March and April. Use of minnow seine not more than 20 feet long permitted at any time. Unlawful to take any fish for commercial purposes.

Mrs. J. D. Greenway and son Larry Don returned to their home in Pecos Wednesday after spending 3 weeks visiting relatives and friends in the city. They were accompanied home by their mother, Mrs. O. K. Wilson who will visit with them for a few days.

Mrs. James Ballew of Decatur arrived Thursday of last week to spend a few days visiting friends and relatives. She was accompanied by her son, J. T., Jr.

Miss Dorothy Cooper from Bartlesville, Oklahoma, is here visiting Miss Zelma Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Woodward and daughter Maryann Murrell have moved to Tyler where Mr. Woodward is opening a bowling alley. They made their home here several years, during which time they made many friends who regret to see them leave our city.

NYA PROJECTS ARE MAKING HAMLIN A MORE LIVABLE CITY

Have you been down to the City Water Station? If not go take a peep—it is a busy place—a beauty spot which will be charming later.

NYA (do you know what that means) is not only doing some nice improving at the Water Station but take a peep at the City Park (not the Ball Parks) they are under construction by WPA and see some more nice work. The Park is clean for the first time in a "coon's age"—and look at the flowers! Look at the water, the drive-ways; all of this adds much to Hamlin community's outdoor enjoyment.

We notice many times that nearby communities are enjoying picnics at Hamlin City Park—welcome folks, it is a public park and let's all enjoy it. This place is pretty now and the future says it is going to be better and very popular.

It is highly important that this recreational spot be kept clean; it may require a watchman on duty 24 hours per day to protect the property and keep order.

The Anson office of NYA reports as follows:

"An NYA project at Hamlin is now going on with the following work being done: construction of 675 feet of double rock wall fence at the pump station, clearing of fifteen acres and setting out of 100 trees, building flower beds, rock curbs, picnic units and 200 yards of gravel-caliche combination road-bed."

That means some extra work at the "upper Lake Park"—now that is a good "distinction."

Upper Lake Park is all that wooded territory lying along what was formerly called Moore Lake. It is about a mile long, with nooks and bends, grass and trees with cooling breezes bathing your face from over the clear shimmering water of the south.

The 200 yards of gravel-caliche road is just before one gets to the lower lake—this is likely to be changed when the road is moved to higher ground. An all-weather road will likely be built from the Hamlin-Rotan highway to the Upper Lake Park. This will enable picnicing and fishing at all the lakes and parks.

PWA Engineer Johnson has an ex-Foot Ball Park and later they will start the Base Ball section. It is a big job and it now looks like the football fellows may have to use some open space this season—maybe not.

PWA Engineer Johnson has an extensive improvement plan to carry out to complete the entire Athletic Park project.

Jimmie Hull And Company Coming Here Next Monday

The Jimmie Hull Players will open a three-night engagement at Hamlin beginning Monday, Aug. 14. The large tent will be located on the lot just across the street from the Home Lumber Company just off Main St. The show, which has been here before, has twenty people in the cast. Complete change of program will be made each night. Walter Rourke, business agent for the show, says the show is carrying two of America's foremost tent show comedians this season, Stomach Ache Van and Skinny Kimling. Others in the cast include Harry Blethrode, juvenile man, H. B. Warner, leading man, and little Miss Tiny Patton, the personality girl and leading lady. Others are Miss Bobby Gunter, and Miss Libby Lee, singers, dancers and specialty acts. The tent is new and large and will accommodate almost one thousand people. The show is guaranteed to be filled with good, clean and wholesome entertainment. Opening night will be "Country Store Night."

Jimmie Hull's Players are to play under the auspices of the Hamlin Fire Department.

Drs. Frank and Robert Johnson are at home just for this week, following their summer work. Dr. Frank has been in a Lovington, N. M. hospital as an assistant this summer and Dr. Robert was Y. M. C. camp doctor for 160 boys at Camp Crockett, near Grandbury.

Hamlin Men Attended Anson C.-C. Banquet

Tuesday night Anson Chamber of Commerce held their annual banquet and elected new officials for the ensuing year.

Annual banquets are prominent features of all chambers of commerce. Anson has its annual meeting in mid-summer, because it was in that season when they organized. Most towns have their banquets in December or January and recount their year of progress. Anson has had an organized club about three years now, and therefore have quite a record of progress. Tuesday night the list of accomplishments was long and convincing.

The affair was held in the school gymnasium, and the dinner was served in cafeteria style. The menu consisted of Jones County rolls and Jones County wheat, Jones County Black-eyed Peas, Jones County mashed potatoes, Jones County Brown Gravy made from Jones County barbecued chicken . . . after that a hitch . . . the coffee evidently did not come out of Jones County (but who knows but that Jones County could produce coffee.) Some of the 100 guests added a pinch or two of sugar to their coffee and real white sugar might be produced in Jones County. The dinner was topped off with pie (in miniature) evidently baked of Jones County material in an Anson bakery.

The Anson school band furnished music. And before visitors were introduced, Mr. Shipp and Miss Effie Lois McCoy of Hamlin and Mr. Fred Bennett, the famous bass singer of near Anson, furnished several numbers of special music. The young comedians from Stamford, Cecil Gray and Burdon Smith, impersonated two Italians in an interesting skit.

Hon. Walter D. Cline, of Wichita Falls, was the main speaker, but preceding this, Judge Owen Thomas reviewed the work of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year. High praise was accorded the Secretary, Douglas Triplett for his untiring work.

Visitors from Hamlin were Earl Smith, director of the local Chamber of Commerce, and Harry C. Dodson and Bowen Pope of the Hamlin Herald.

Martin McCain of Corpus Christi arrived Tuesday for a few days' visit with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Sauls, and to look after business interests in Hamlin and community. Mr. McCain formerly was cashier of the First National Bank in Hamlin and is now one of the State Bank examiners. He will return Friday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sauls. Mr. McCain was reported in very ill health a few months ago but his appearance would indicate he is quite well and strong now.

Mrs. J. W. Jenkins and sons Lester and Chester are visiting in Collin County this week.

Rains Have Refreshed Most of Hamlin Country

Besides what is said in another place in the Herald we are hereby and here on trying to tell you that the climate this week about Hamlin has been superbly cool and bracing. Monday looked a bit distressing, however up till near night. It looked like dry weather had just started, following a fine local rain of one full inch in part of Hamlin's territory on Friday afternoon.

It just looked like that "FOUR" inches would not get here. But who can prophesy. At 2:30 Tuesday morning things again looked like or at least sounded like a flood. Instead only a nice inch or more of real cool wetting rain came, not absolutely general but from a quarter to more than an inch in all parts of the Hamlin territory. Gosh it was fine.

Now about the "FOUR" inches. It still looks like it. If it will cover the whole country that much we need not worry about prosperity. Water makes this country hump, and without water she can't hump up.

The rains and the cool days and very cool nights have revived drying feed and wilting cotton till one can hardly imagine the magic change.

Kill the Farm Enemy With a Good Machine

It seems that during the past few years that a dusting machine with which to control the insect enemies has become nearly as essential to the cotton raiser as any piece of machinery that he uses. Many sprays are scattered over the country, but they do not seem to do an efficient job on any type of insect, except the leaf-worm, while the dusting machine gives more efficient control on all the insects. This fact alone makes it wise to own a dusting machine instead of a spray.

There are many different types of dusting machines on the market, some of which are good ones and others, that like everything else are not efficient. It is of vital importance when purchasing a dusting machine to get a good one. Any machine is a good one that will cover the plants uniformly with minimum amount of poison and continue to do so over a period of years.

The real life and durability of a dusting machine lies in the fan. The fan furnishes the power or air for the discharge of the poison and it is therefore essential that it be large and strong enough to accomplish this.

The machine should also provide ways of adjustment as to row width and height, because for the best results the dust should be discharged just above the plants and blown downward with enough force to get a rebound of the poison, and hence covering both the top and the bottom of all leaves and leaving less of the plant for the insect to feed upon without getting a dose of poison.

The machine should be constructed throughout of a heavy material to add to its life. As the reaction of the sulphur and calcium arsenate is corrosive-like in effect it is essential that the machine be built of some strong material to insure a longer life. Light materials are soon destroyed.

It is also well to obtain a machine that is constructed from standard parts that can be obtained easily in case some part should break, as delays are costly when insects are at work.

Many small farmers often buy a machine together and thus reduce the individual cost of buying a machine. This is an excellent idea and will work to the benefit of all if the machine is not required to dust too great an acreage. When insect infestations become heavy the machine is needed at once and if too many are trying to use the same machine someone may get the machine too late to obtain the best results. One dusting machine should be able to care for around 400-500 acres of cotton throughout the year if a good dusting program is worked out in advance.

The good machine usually costs a little more money; yet the quality of its work and the number of years that it will last as compared to a cheaply constructed machine will make it far cheaper in the end.

Hamlin Boy Becomes Manager of Grocery Store in Las Cruces

The Herald is glad to observe a news item in a Las Cruces newspaper telling of a nice promotion for one of our former Hamlin boys, Earl H. Ellison. The paper presented Ellison's smiling picture in the article telling that this young man had been made manager of a big new food store "Courteous Food Market."

Young Ellison started his grocery experience at the Albritton store in Hamlin. The secret of the success of all the Ellison boys is that they were reared in a large family and work without regard to hours was their foundation, plus absolute honesty and all of them have pleasing personalities. All these boys need is time to learn what and how a thing is to be done. Congratulations, Earl.

Mrs. Bill Thomas and husband were called to Brady Tuesday by the serious injury of Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. S. C. Herring who was injured in the terrible car crash just out of the city of Brady, the one in which a woman from Santa Anna crashed into the Herring car and was killed. Others of the Herring family were injured, but not as seriously as Mrs. Herring.

Harvey Elkins came in on Wednesday of last week from Ft. Bliss where he had been in the regular army 8th Cavalry for five months. He is transferring to the air corps at Randolph Field.

JIMMIE HULL

Opening a 3-day engagement in Hamlin beginning Monday. Jimmie is beginning to be known in this section, and brings you something new this year, with 20 in the cast.

Mrs. G. C. Gibbs of Shreveport, La., Mrs. Celia P. Hyde, of Crowley, La., and Mrs. G. A. Foster and daughter, Miss Jo of Pollock, La., are all visiting their sister, Mrs. W. A. Albritton and family this week.

From Cacti-Mesquite to Wheat

Picture No. 4—Contoured Fields, Grain, Life

Do you recall picture No. 1—the old cowman and little son, watching the cattle on the range—the scant grass, the distant dry clouds; glaring sunshine. Picture No. 2 conturing the pasture. Picture No. 3 terracing the field, once a scant pasture.

Today you see the same area with ripened wheat, made possible by taking care of the land and proving its fertility—a step in the transformation of West Texas from a cowman's range to thousands of tilled farms—is it sensible progress? Keep your pictures from No. 1 to No. 15.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Galveston, in an effort to defend its home production against Houston passed an ordinance requiring all bakeries, delivering goods in the city limits, to pay $12.50 for each monthly inspection and $10 for each mile the delivery is made from outside of the city limits.

This is a feeble effort to defend the home baker-taxpayer when a complete boycott of such goods by the citizens would fix 'em quicker.

COTTON QUERY

There's a Cabin in the Cotton,
But no Cotton in the Cabin;
Aunt Jamima's gettin' supper
In a dress of acetate;
Uncle Peter in a polo shirt
And pants of rayon yarn,
Wears a tie of purple silk-spun
While he's milking in the barn;
Sara Manth's peelin' 'taters in
Her brand new celanese;
Arabella in her bemberr
's on the doorstep shellin' peas;
Baby Ned and little Eva,
Crawlin' 'round the cabin floor,
Have on little lastest rompers
From the 5 and 10-cent store;
Oh! the Cabin's in the Cotton still,
Just like in verse and song,
But with no Cotton in the Cabin, will
It be there very long?

—Chas. E. Fenner

IF THERE ARE SUBSTITUTES:

Cotton is slowly facing a "New Deal." If there are substitutes for cotton the only way cotton can keep its head up, is for the world to find new uses for it. Patronage for cotton is much like patronage for railroads, nothing sentimental can ever save either but patronage. If Jamima is wearing a dress of Acetate and Pete plays polo in a Rayon Shirt and wears a purple silk tie while milking in the barn, and so on down the line of the cotton raising family, who is to blame? The age of the "Cabin in the cotton patch" is past. The cabin may be there but new conditions have moved the occupants to miserably little cities to take refuge on relief work. Who is to blame? Not the cotton producer, not the cotton laborer, not the merchant who sells rayon and other substitutes... just a changed age.

The same story could be elaborated upon with hog lard as the subject; with cotton seed oils as the subject; buggies, wagons, passenger coaches, ice boxes, and a hundred other things the older strata of this generation grew up on. Life is a field of "substitutes" and once a substitute gets hold on society it does its work in unconquerable ways. Even in these days there is an effort to set up a substitute for old men in life's struggle. Maybe the old men will fight back, but cotton is likely to have a fading contest, on some lines. Single trees, double trees, spokes, axels, mauls, iron wedges, oxen yokes and jeans pants were all the go in Lincoln's day.

Dear Mr. Pope:

Yours truly,
CLAUD NEWSOM

P. S. I also send you another dollar for ad on my house which is just across street from C. G. Green. I don't know the name of the street so I leave that blank and you can fill in the name of the street.

C. N.

MR. NEWSOM, it is a doggone shame a good town like Hamlin, with nice wide streets and avenues, all officially named and not a "tag" on any of them in 34 years.

It would cost each property owner on a corner about $1.50, co-operating neighbor with neighbor, to erect standard "City-like" markers—this would mean on your corner the name "Union Ave.," and on Mr. Green's corner First Street. The other two corners would be tagged likewise in reverse order—then no night could be so dark but that a car light would tell one where he is "at".

The Herald has observed a Special Edition of the Smackover, Arkansas, Journal, published by Mrs. J. T. Alexander, and daughter of our Hamlin townsman, J. W. Muncy. This extra edition was in celebration of the 17th year of the oil discovery in that locality. It shows what a small community can become in so short a time when millions are being made from the oil industry. The issue consisted of 36 pages, and was well arranged, and edited.

Scolding won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will!

If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught tonight. Like the original famed BLACK-DRAUGHT, its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles.

Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and 25c.

Some of the Obstacles We Have to Reckon With

—While we have greatly reduced our cotton acreage, we still have in Government loans 11,300,000 bales of cotton, about one year's production, while the world's consumption has increased about 3,000,000 bales, our exports have dropped 5,000,000 bales, from 8,766,000 bales in 1932 to 3,400,000 bales this year. The smallest exports in 60 years. In competition to low grades, short staple and linters, the Manufacturers are using a lot of wood pulp for rayon and many other items, also making clothing from glass and skimmed milk, with success.

—Let us take Wheat. Statisticians have calculated the various countries raising wheat have contributed $2,000,000,000 annually in an effort to hold up grain prices and in the face of this we have a supply of 5,290,000,000 bushels, the greatest on record. A world market price the lowest in several hundred years. At the present price of our wheat, about 60 cents; if you deduct a government subsidy of 30 cents, you can see what the world market looks like.

—Let's take a peep at corn. Last year in order to hold up the market, the Government made liberal loans on corn, above selling price. In consequence today, the crops are full of corn under Government loan, with a loss to the Government of about 25 cents per bushel and the largest carry-over on record and another good crop in prospect, all of which is bearing the market down. Stocks of old corn on the farms the first of July were 836,000,000 bushels and 200,000,000 bushels larger than last year.

LET'S PUT OUR SHOULDER TO THE WHEEL AND WIN OUR uphill FIGHT

Increased U.S. PRODUCTION of soybean oil, lard and other fats and oils plus the IMPORTS of foreign fats and oils have sharply reduced the value of the cottonseed oil that makes up more than half of the value of our cottonseed.

Increased production of soybean meal, grains and other feeds have reduced the value of the cottonseed meal and hulls that account for nearly 40% of the total value of our cottonseed.

Wood pulp, and other competitive fibers have made the linters on our cottonseed of little value and in very little demand.

HOWEVER...

FARMERS, GINNERS and OIL MILLERS, ALL of whom SUFFER from these unfavorable conditions, CAN HELP THEMSELVES BY "PUTTING THEIR SHOULDERS TO THE WHEEL" and working together to increase the use of our own cottonseed oil, meal, cake hulls and other products whose value determines the value of our own cottonseed.

We greatly appreciate the Good Will and co-operation of the entire community and feel sure the more products can be consumed locally, the greater advantage it will be to all and the better price we will be able to pay for the seed. It is easy to see what we are up against, when we attempt to force our Farmers' products, on the outside markets under the present conditions.

—The Soybean crop is estimated at 8,119,000 acres, the largest on record. This is the third consecutive year of increase. This bean produces an abundance of vegetable oil and cake and is grown chiefly in the states of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. Has increased in production from 33,000,000 pounds in 1934 to 323,000,000 pounds in 1938.

—The acreage of peanuts for all purposes is estimated at 2,339,000 acres and 8 per cent larger than the previous year's high record.

—Our imports of Fats and Oils last year were practically two billion lbs. These figures from Foreign Crops & Markets for 10 months show coconut oil 303 million, cotton seed oil 61 million, olive oil 80 million, palm oil 226 million, tung oil 84 million, castor beans 114 million, copra 400 million pounds and many others, although this is not a record on imports.

—Hogs and Lard. On account of cheap feed we have had a tremendous increase on hogs for several seasons, also on account of the small exports of lard and cotton seed oil, we have built up an enormous stock of fats on hand.

—The Educational Service of the Cotton Oil Mills, along with the splendid co-operation of the Experiment Stations, the Extension Forces and the Farm and Ranch leaders of the Southwest, have built up and maintained a price for the farmers' Cotton Seed above the prewar level and above the relative price of most other farm crops. On account of the enormous pressure directly and indirectly, from other farm products the price of cotton seed is being forced more in line with other agriculture commodities.

Stamford, Aug. 9—Marriage of Lucille Tillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tillman of Stamford, to Johnnie Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Durham, was solemnized Sunday evening in the home of Bruce Proctor, Church of Christ minister, in Hamlin.

Beatrice Fare of Stamford attended the couple. The bride wore an aqua blue sheer frock with black accessories. Her flowers were purple asters. They are making their home in Hamlin where the groom is associated with his father in service station business.—Clipped from a daily paper.

NOW: The young bridegroom is the nearest neighbor of the Hamlin Herald—go over and investigate—we did and Johnnie was still smiling. He says, "I thought everybody knew that," but not everybody. So again Hamlin is reducing the population of Stamford—it is not a bad idea neighbor—congratulations.

6 MILLION MILES
a year
IN TEXAS
without a serious accident

EACH MORNING this Texas telephone man climbs into his blue-gray truck and goes about his job of making telephones talk. Safety rides with him as he drives through city streets and over country highways.

Last year he, and other telephone men in Texas, drove 600 telephone cars and trucks more than six million miles—the equivalent of 241 trips around the world—without a serious accident. There were a few scratched fenders to be sure... but last year's average for minor accidents was only one in 177,000 miles of telephone driving in Texas.

Safe, courteous, considerate driving is an important part of a telephone man's training. Safety, the duty of every good citizen to his community, is one of this company's goals as it goes about its job of furnishing good telephone service at low cost to you.
